Faculty Webinar

Recognizing Students with Asperger's with Julie Coates

Thursday, October 10, 1-2pm

You and all other teachers have one or more students with Asperger's in your classes. Find out how to recognize behaviors that may indicate Asperger's Syndrome, even if you teach online. Then take away strategies for working effectively with Asperger's students. Includes 15-minute Q&A.

As an institutional member of LERN, this webinar is free and open to all Concordia faculty.

Email tammyp@lern.org with the name of the event to register.

Call for Abstracts: Faculty Scholarship Poster Session

The 2013 Faculty Scholarship Poster Session will be held Tuesday, October 22, 2013, 8am-5pm in the Terrace Room at the Mequon campus. The new deadline for submissions is Noon on Friday, September 20, 2013. All faculty from Concordia's six schools are invited to submit abstracts to the academic office for consideration. Any form of faculty scholarship is welcome! Here is a useful link for help in writing abstracts: <http://writing.colostate.edu/guides/guide.cfm?guideid=59>. You will be notified by October 4 if your abstract has been accepted.

The faculty scholarship committee will serve as peer-reviewers. If your abstract is accepted you will receive information about creating and displaying a poster. You can stand by your poster from 11am-1pm on October 22, depending on your teaching schedule.

This is an opportunity to showcase faculty scholarly work and fulfills the criteria for scholarship as described in the faculty handbook: original work grounded in the literature of an academic or professional discipline, peer-reviewed, and disseminated [published or presented].

Submit your abstract as a WORD document to studentworker.academicoffice@cuw.edu. Click here for an abstract submission template. Abstracts submitted any other way, to any other address, will not be considered. If you don't submit an abstract this year, please come to the Terrace Room on October 22 to view the good work of your colleagues. Invite your students!

Questions should be directed to Leah Dvorak or to any member of the Faculty Scholarship Committee: Suzy Siegle (Ann Arbor), Mark Wolf, Jeff Walz, Scott van Ornum, Sarah Lovern, Rachel Pickett, Tom Wilmeth, Brian Harries, Mary Lou Kopp, Kimberly Voigt, Pollyanna Kabara, Ted King, Becky von der Heyde, Mary Weeden.

The 2014 Teaching Professor Conference: Call for Proposals

May 30-June 1, 2014 in Boston, MA. Deadline for submissions November 1, 2013.

The Teaching Professor Conference provides a thought-provoking, stimulating forum for educators of all disciplines and experience levels to share practical ideas and best practices that advance college teaching and learning.

Featured topics include: Instructional design, activities that engage students, teaching specific types of students, ways to keep teaching fresh and invigorated, teaching and learning with technology, creating climates for learning, faculty development.
