Using Videoconference Units

The updated AV channel also has new information about how to work the videoconference units, an emergency plan of action if you lose the connection, and teaching tips on preparing in advance so students can easily access your materials at the remote site. You can also find this information here.

Remember to call the AV number if you can't solve the problem yourself. They are open 9am - 11:30pm Monday thru Thursday, 9am - 5:30pm Friday, and Saturday 9am to 2pm - 262 243 4370.

Self-Paced Course Available

Sign up for the self-paced Teaching via Video Conference course. It takes about 30 minutes to complete and includes downloadable resources. Register here.

Faith, Learning and Vocation: The Intersection of Science and Christian Theology

Tuesday September 15, Wednesday October 14, Thursday November 5
3:30-4:30pm in SCI 101

In Christ All Things Hold Together is a new LCMS publication addressing the intersection of science and Christian Theology. Drawing from fields including history and philosophy it investigates how science and theology can be cohesively aligned while seeking to understand God's creation. Our interdisciplinary discussions will be led by faculty in theology (Phil Penhallegon) and the natural sciences (Jim Refenes) but will be enriched by participants from any discipline interested in studying the world within a worldview that is both faithful and intellectually meaningful.

TIPS

- ◆ Do not use Internet Explorer with Blackboard Learn. Use Google Chrome or Mozilla Firefox.
- ◆ Group your courses by term. Click here to learn how.
- ◆ If you want to show letter grades in Blackboard Learn: the default grading schema must be updated; it does not match any Concordia grading schemas. See page 15 when you click here.
