Leaders: Elizabeth Evans and Angela Walmsley

This program is for faculty. Are you looking for a scholarship project? Bring a question you have about your students' learning and turn it into a research question. In this session, you will learn about six steps in the SoTL process, identify a preliminary research question and study design, and set target dates for further steps. Follow-up support and/or touchpoints for each step can also be planned if participants are interested.

Concordia University Wisconsin Scholarship Boot Camp Winter 2019

Come to a quiet place to work on your faculty scholarship projects, including your advanced study courses and dissertations. Sign up for the hours and days you plan to attend. Come as you are; arrive and leave as you need to.

Writing support, research design support and statistical planning and analysis support will be available for some part of each of the days.

The goal of this time is to produce tangible work. We provide the space, snacks, beverages, a lunch, and you supply the focus and attention to projects.

PH 039 will be the quiet space away from your phone and interruptions. The room will be open from 8am to 4:30 each day. You are encouraged to stay all day to get maximum benefit.

The last day to register for lunch (from the Landing) is Monday, January 14th at noon.

Sponsored by the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs and supported by CELT

Concordia Servant Leader Roundtable

Thursday, January 10, 7:30—8:00 am in the Lakeshore Room

The January meeting's topic is: Self-Awareness

The journey of awareness begins with self-awareness, which can be charted when we successfully answer questions like: "Who am I?" "Why am I here?" "Where am I going?" "How will I get there?" As we become more aware of self, we are in position to be more aware of the needs of others. As we become more aware of self and others, we can then help those within our circles of influence become aware of self and others, and so on. ~ Adapted from Greg Anderson

"Love: Unconquered & Uncommon"

"In all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Romans 8:37-39 ESV)
