

In This Issue:

- Concordia Faculty Seminar– Thursday, March 7
- Concordia Servant Leader Roundtable—Thursday March 14
- Service Learning Showcase– Wednesday, March 27
- Diversity, Success & You– Monday, April 1
- Student Motivation– Wednesday, April 3
- Concordia Faculty Seminar– Thursday, April 4
- Webinar Recording Available: Motivating and Engaging Gen Z
- Respondus LockDown Browser—Training Materials Available

Please Note: The March 6th event Teaching, Learning and Assessment Showcase on Communicative Fluency was cancelled due to too few poster presenters.

Concordia Faculty Seminar: A Team-Based Collaborative Care Approach in Clinics

Led by Dr. Michael Oldani and introduced by Dan McCollum
Thursday, March 7, 12:15-1:00 pm in the Lakeshore Room
Free Lunch (Cafeteria) for the first 20 faculty to register
 Brought to you by the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs (ORSP).

Registration Link

During this program, Dr. Oldani describes an approach focused on inter-professional team-based collaborative care in clinics with medical cases focusing on hypertension, with diabetes mellitus and other conditions. Programs involved include Pharmacy, Nursing, Physical Therapy, Occupational Therapy, Social Work, and Physician Assistants.

Concordia Faculty Seminars are informal interactive presentations and conversations on faculty projects including grants, research, and service designed to promote scholarship, spark new ideas, provide opportunities for meaningful discussion, and increase collaboration.

Concordia Servant Leader Roundtable: Awareness that Something Needs to be Done

Thursday, March 14, 7:30-8:30 am in the Lakeshore Room

Registration Link / Link to poster

Service Learning Showcase: How Do I Add Service Learning to my Course?

Led by Randy Ferguson, Sara Collins, Lori Woodall, and Lois Harrison
Wednesday, March 27, Noon-1:00 pm in the Lakeshore Room
Free Lunch (Cafeteria) for the first 20 to register

Registration Link

Interact with CUW colleagues who have taught service learning courses; we will discuss the logistics, challenges, and benefits associated with incorporating service into your teaching. It can be as simple as adding a service project or as substantial as running service-learning pedagogy throughout the course. Our time together will be dialogical and practical, filled with recent CUW examples.

Diversity, Success & You: Gender Issues

Led by Eugene Pitchford and Steve Gerner
Monday, April 1, Noon-1:00 pm in the Terrace Room
Free Lunch (Cafeteria) for the first 30 employees to register

Registration Link

“Diversity, Success, & You” with Eugen Pitchford and Steve Gerner This Lunch & Learn is designed to give you the knowledge, tools, and dispositions to effectively facilitate diverse learning environments. An emphasis in this session is on understanding how students’ experiences are impacted by gender and family values. This highly engaging professional development will challenge you to apply this novel learning in your current professional role.

Student Motivation: The Latest Developments in Vocation in Undergraduate Education from NetVUE

Led by Rachel Pickett, Elizabeth Polzin, Tim Macafee, and Ryan Daugherty
Wednesday, April 3, Noon-1:00 pm in the Lakeshore Room
Free Lunch (Cafeteria) for the first 20 to register

Registration Link

Presenters represented Concordia University at the March 2019 Biennial NetVUE Conference (Network of Vocation in Undergraduate Education). They will share portions of their conference presentation on connecting citizenship and vocation in the new core course CCE 130 The Christian Citizen which helps students think about how they might shape the world through Christian service. The presenters will also share highlights from the conference that can be applied to faculty work. You will also get a brief preview of the NetVUE grant CU was recently awarded focusing on vocation and the Global Learning Outcomes.

Concordia Faculty Seminar with Dr. Pease and Dr. Belz

Introduced by Leah Dvorak, Vice-Provost for Faculty Affairs
Thursday, April 4, Noon-1:00 pm in the Lakeshore Room
Free Lunch (Cafeteria) for the first 15 faculty to register

Registration Link

Betsy Pease, Assistant Professor of History, recently completed her Ph.D. in History from Indiana University-Bloomington. She will talk about her research related to her dissertation “Good Neighbors: The Great Depression and the Movement to Remake American Communities.”

Angela Belz, a faculty member in CUW’s Batterman School of Business, will talk about her recent research for the Ph.D. in Leadership for the Advancement of Learning at Cardinal Stritch University. Her dissertation title was “Voices from the Ground: Caseworker Perceptions of Margin in Life, W-2 Program Effectiveness and Organizational Support.”

Concordia Faculty Seminars are informal interactive presentations and conversations on faculty projects including grants, research, and service designed to promote scholarship, spark new ideas, provide opportunities for meaningful discussion, and increase collaboration. Faculty, staff and students are welcome to attend.

Webinar Recording: Motivating and Engaging Generation Z Learners

Generation Z (born from 1995-2010) is now in college and they’ve brought a unique set of values and interests with them. If you’re challenged by—or even just curious about—understanding the drive and motivation of the young students in your classes, this online seminar will provide research-based context, understanding, and practical tactics that can be implemented in any classroom.

This webinar recording link is now available on-demand.

Access the recording through this link: link to recording. You will need to enter the following password: GenerationZ42. Transcript is also available: Link to transcript.

On-demand access to the seminar is available for 1 year of the live presentation. Registrants are permitted to share access with faculty, staff, and students from their institution. The program can be viewed individually or in groups, as often as you'd like while on-demand access is available.

Respondus LockDown Browser Training Materials Available

If you are using Blackboard Tests for classroom exams, Respondus LockDown Browser is available. When taking Blackboard tests using LockDown Browser students cannot print, make screen captures, access other web pages, or access other applications while taking the exam. Watch this 3-minute video for an overview of LockDown Browser: link to video

Training materials, including link to student instructions and browser download are available on the CELT Blog: link to blog.

CELT Staff

- Elizabeth Evans, CELT Director
elizabeth.evans@cuw.edu, 262-243-4283
- Justin Frisque, Educational Technologies Support Technician
justin.frisque@cuw.edu, 262-243-4270
- Susan Gallanis, Instructional Development Specialist
susan.gallanis@cuw.edu, 262-243-2007
- Kate Robertson, Instructional Designer-Blended Learning
catherine.robertson@cuw.edu, 262-243-2082

“Love: Unconquered & Uncommon”

“In all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.” (Romans 8:37-39 ESV)