The Concordia Intramural Teaching Grant (CITG) - Submission deadline June 1st

The Concordia Intramural Teaching Grant (CITG) application for 2018-2019 is available on our website, the CELT channel on the faculty tab, and in the Forms Repository on the Resources tab (CELT category). Applications due June 1, 2018 for the 2018-2019 academic year.

This is an opportunity for full-time faculty to receive support for an innovation in a face-to-face or blended course to be taught next year. Examples might include a service learning project, developing a problem-based learning approach in a course, strategies to support measurement of student learning for a Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (SoTL) project, or a project that demonstrates the value of high-impact practices or the Concordia Principles for Good Practice in Teaching and Learning. Contact Elizabeth Evans for more information.

Grant Proposal Writing Retreat—Submission deadline May 4

This workshop will prepare faculty members for all parts of the grant-writing and submission process. Submit proposals to Julie Dresen, PH 288A. Deadline for submission is May 4, 2018

Selected applicants will receive a $1,000 stipend upon successful completion of the grant submission process. If you have any questions please email Julie Dresen, Director, Office of Sponsored Programs or call 262-243-2794.

Grant Proposal Writing Retreat application materials are available on the Office of Sponsored Programs website (link to website)

Student Research Poster Session

Wednesday May 2, 12:00—1:00 pm in the Terrace Room.

Contact Jeff Walz with questions.

We anticipate 50 student posters. Come out to support Based on faculty responses, we are looking at almost 50 posters; this necessitated ordering additional supplies – easels, some poster boards, and binder clips. There will be light food and drink, more this year due to the increased number of posters (43 posters last year).

Faith and Learning Development Institute: The Global Ends, Christian Faith and Worldviews

Tuesday May 22, 9:00—2:30 in PH132

Led by Bernard Bull, Susan Mobley, Dan Paavola, Angus Menuge and Elizabeth Evans

This session is an opportunity to learn about the meaning and purpose of the “global ends” which all Concordia programs are to address, and particularly the first “global end” on Christian Faith and worldviews. Do you know how to talk about worldviews, the Christian worldview and other worldviews? Do you have the tools that will help you make decisions on curriculum materials and teaching? As faculty members, program directors, and academic staff begin to look at revising programs and courses to address the global ends, the time is right for a faculty and academic staff institute. This program is open to all full-time faculty and staff, including program directors, center directors, and instructional designers as well as adjunct faculty. Coffee available at 8:30am. Box lunches will be provided. Registration Link.

Faculty and Staff Summer 2018 Book Group “Gen Z: The Culture, Beliefs and Motivations Shaping the Next Generation”

Four Wednesdays: June 6, 13, July 11, 18, 2018. All from 11am to Noon in R006

With Elizabeth Polzin (Student Success) and Kurt Taylor (Theology)

There’s a new generation making up more than 25% of the US population and they’ve already arrived on CUW’s campus. Faculty and staff are welcome to register for this summer book group discussion of Generation Z. Due to the high cost of this book, it will be loaned to participants. Register with CELT to participate. Limit 18 people.

Last day to register May 30. Registration link

Dissertation/Writing Project Boot Camp

Tuesday June 5 and Wednesday June 6, 8am to 5pm

Wednesday June 27 and Thursday June 28, 8am to 5pm

Come to a quiet place to work on your dissertation or other faculty scholarship projects. Sign up for the day or days you will attend. Statistical and writing support will be available for some part of each of the days. The goal of this time is to produce tangible work. We provide the space, snacks, beverages, a lunch, and you supply the focus and attention to projects. Please register in advance: Registration link

The last day to register for lunch is May 29 for the early June dates and June 20 for the last June dates.

Sponsored by the Provost's Office, supported by the Office of Sponsored Programs and CELT. Email Leah Dvorak with questions or call 262 243 4522.

Academic Innovation Team on Augmented and Virtual Reality with Bernard Bull

Two Thursdays Left: June 21 and July 19, both 2:30—4:00 pm in R006

We are launching the first of what we hope to be several future academic innovation teams. An academic innovation team is a group of faculty and academic staff who gather monthly to focus upon a specific academic innovation, with the ultimate goal of enhancing teaching or pursuing a scholarly project. “Gifted by Grace, Prepared for His Purpose”

“For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast.

For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.”

(Ephesians 2:8-10 ESV)
