TEACHING, LEARNING & EVALUATION through the Global Learning Outcomes (GLOs)

Thursday September 12, 4:00—5:15 pm in Krieger 106

Registration link

This program is for all faculty and instructional staff.

Come, share with your colleagues. This event recaps efforts made last year on GLO #5 Communicative Fluency and addresses the upcoming focus on GLO #1 Christian Faith for 2019-2020.

What is your role in teaching and evaluation of the GLOs? All faculty and instructional staff are welcome. Departmental assessment coordinators and Assessment Committee members are strongly urged to attend.

Topics: Terminology, four areas of Communication identified and evaluated, four possible areas of GLO #1 to consider and embed in curriculum this year, connecting your lessons to rubrics, how the NETVUE Grant could dovetail with your program and departmental work on any GLO.

Coffee, water and snacks will be provided.

Please contact Elizabeth Evans with any questions at elizabeth.evans@cuw.edu or 262 243 4283.

Concordia Faculty Scholarship Week—Abstract Submission Deadline Friday Sept 13!

Concordia's Faculty Scholarship Week is quickly approaching! Here are the details:

- Abstract submission deadline: Friday September 13, 5:00 pm CDT; the link to the abstract template is below.
- The Faculty Scholarship Committee will review all abstracts and will notify authors by Monday, September 30, 2019.
- Posters and Presentations will be on Wednesday, November 6 in the Black Box. Posters will be set up all day.
- This is a peer-reviewed event; it is a great place to get some feedback on your scholarly work, and to get a peer-reviewed scholarly product for your CV.

All academic disciplines are welcome; we hope to have a strong representation from all six schools and a wide variety of departments and programs.

You can direct any questions to julie.dresen@cuw.edu or call x2794.

Faculty Learning Community: Surface, Strategic and Deep Learning

Led by Marilyn Meell and Robert Hill

Three meetings scheduled:

Monday September 23, 3:15 – 4:30 in SCI 101

Thursday October 10, 3:30 – 4:45 in Krieger 107

Monday November 18, 3:15 – 4:30 in SCI 101

Registration link

We will read and discuss several pedagogical articles on surface, strategic, and deep learning. Our primary goal is to learn how we can help motivate and move students from surface to deep learning. A secondary goal of this group is to consider the increasing diversity of our student population and begin a conversation on culturally responsive teaching. Readings will be determined and shared via email. Food and beverages provided.

"Sufficient Grace in God's Perfect Power"

"Jesus said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.' Therefore, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me." (2 Corinthians 12:9 ESV)
