

In This Issue:

- Let's Talk About GLO#1 Christian Faith and Education—9/10
- What it Means to Be Lutheran—Employee Book Study—9/12 registration deadline
- Concordia Faculty Scholarship Week—9/13 Abstract submission deadline
- Concordia Faculty Seminar with Meghan Watry-Christian and Ryan Daugherty—9/9
- A Conversation About Writing-Intensive Courses with Sally Canapa—9/12
- Measuring Student Learning for Program GLOs and NetVUE Learning Activities—9/30
- Concordia Servant Leader Roundtable—9/12
- Rincker Memorial Library News
- September Blackboard Sessions

Link to the CELT CUW Fall Programs Downloadable Poster: <http://celt.cuw.edu/cuw-fall-2019/>

Let's Talk About GLO#1 Christian Faith and Education with Brad Alles

Tuesday September 10, 3:00—4:00 pm in LU006 or join with Zoom from your own computer.

Registration link

This session is an introduction to integrating faith into life, teachable moments, and classroom content, giving brief examples used in education courses from philosophy, psychology, sociology, law, politics, economics, and history.

What it Means to Be Lutheran—Employee Book Study with Rev. Dr. Dan Paavola

Global Learning Outcome #1 Christian Faith is the Focus GLO for 2019—2020. Please join us for this program to develop our understanding of Christian Faith with Rev. Dr. Dan Paavola on his book “Grace, Faith, Scripture: Portrait of a Lutheran” (2019).

You must register in advance to participate. Deadline to register is Thursday September 12 at 5pm. You must register to attend at least one session to obtain a copy of the book.

Registration link

The book study includes three sessions in the Terrace Room, Noon—1:00 pm.

Thursday, September 26

Wednesday, October 9

Thursday, October 17

This book study includes the option of lunch through the cafeteria line.

Concordia Faculty Scholarship Week—Abstract Submission Deadline Friday Sept 13!

Concordia's Faculty Scholarship Week is quickly approaching! Here are the details:

Abstract submission deadline: Friday September 13, 5:00 pm CDT; the link to the abstract template is below.

The Faculty Scholarship Committee will review all abstracts and will notify authors by Monday, September 30, 2019.

Poster session: Wednesday November 6, 11:30—12:30. We encourage you to set up your posters early in the morning, but you are not required to be there all day. There will be snacks.

Presentations: Tuesday, November 5, Thursday, November 7, and Friday, November 8 from noon – 1:00 in the Lakeshore Room on the Mequon campus; lunch will be provided.

This is a peer-reviewed event; it is a great place to get some feedback on your scholarly work, and to get a peer-reviewed scholarly product for your CV.

All academic disciplines are welcome; we hope to have a strong representation from all six schools and a wide variety of departments and programs.

You can direct any questions to julie.dresen@cuw.edu or call x2794.

Links to the abstract template and poster templates are below:

<https://falcon.cuw.edu/portal/AbstractTemplate2019.pdf>

<https://falcon.cuw.edu/portal/PosterTemplateCUW.pub>

<https://falcon.cuw.edu/portal/PosterTemplate.ppt>

<https://falcon.cuw.edu/portal/PosterPresentations.pptx> <https://falcon.cuw.edu/portal/PosterPresentations2.ppt>

Concordia Faculty Seminar with Meghan Watry-Christian and Ryan Daugherty

Monday September 9, 12:10—1:00 in the Lakeshore Room

Introduced by Leah Dvorak

Registration link

Meghan Watry-Christian, Occupational Therapy Department, School of Health Professions at Mequon, recently completed her Ph.D. in Special Education from Northcentral University. She will talk about her research related to her dissertation, “Exploring Postsecondary Transition Factors Related to Quality of Life in Young Adults with Autism Spectrum Disorders.”

Dr. Ryan Daugherty, Social Science Department, School of Arts and Sciences at Mequon, recently completed his Ph.D. at the University of Kansas in Political Science. He will talk his research related to his dissertation, “Challenge of Ethnicity? Ethnic Diversity and Democratic Representation.”

Concordia Faculty Seminars are informal interactive presentations and conversations on faculty projects including grants, research, and service designed to promote scholarship, spark new ideas, provide opportunities for meaningful discussion, and increase collaboration. Faculty, staff and students are welcome to attend. Up to 15 free lunches are available for faculty who register in advance.

A Conversation About Writing-Intensive Courses with Sally Canapa

Thursday September 12, Noon—1:00 pm in the Lakeshore Room

Registration link

This program will provide faculty who are now teaching a writing-intensive course, or are contemplating teaching such a course in the future, an opportunity to learn about the pedagogy informing this initiative. Possible approaches will be presented and discussed, and faculty will have the opportunity to offer their ideas and ask questions.

This is the first of two Fall programs that address designing and teaching writing-intensive courses and are also related to Global Learning Outcome (GLO) #5 – Communicative Fluency. Faculty do not need to attend both workshops. Up to 15 free lunches are available for faculty who register in advance.

Measuring Student Learning for Program GLOs and NetVUE Learning Activities

Monday September 30, Noon—1:00 pm in the Lakeshore Room

Presented by Elizabeth Evans and Susan Gallanis

Registration link

Intended Audience:

1. Faculty or instructional staff working on program assessment
2. NetVUE Participants.

As a follow up to the August 15th session on TEACHING, LEARNING and EVALUATION through the Global Learning Outcomes (GLOs), program assessment coordinators are invited to learn more the rubrics that can be connected in Blackboard to collect data on GLO #5 Communicative Fluency and GLO #1 Christian Faith, and potentially other GLOs. NetVUE Grant Participants will learn more about the various options for connecting their grading of student learning activities to the reporting process for this grant in Blackboard.

Concordia Servant Leader Roundtable

Thursday, September 12, 7:30-8:30 in the Lakeshore Room

Registration link

The topic for September is Servant Leadership is Conscious Leadership.

“Conscious leaders are like golfers with a full set of clubs; they know how to select and implement the right approach for each situation. These leaders are able to bend but not break, adapting to circumstances in a principled way without sacrificing their core values.” -Raj Sisodia

Rincker Memorial Library News

Greeting from Rincker Memorial Library!

Some news and reminders to help you get your fall semester started.

#1 We Want to See Your Research Assignments

Email a copy of upcoming assignments with Subject: Research Assignments to

Elaine.gustafson@cuw.edu

Need inspiration? Check out our Research Assignment Ideas

#2 We've Updated Some of Our Popular Videos

Primo 101: Searching (6 min)

Primo 102: Reserves, Menus, Advanced Search (3 min)

Library Research 101: Research Questions & Background Information (5 min)

Library Research 101: Organizing & Citing Sources (2 min)

#3 Reference Help is no Longer Tied to a Desk

This short video explains the change to students and faculty:

What if I Need Research Help? (2 min)

#4 We've Updated the Library Portal Tab

Tab organization now highlights the most popular links & resources

Help Guides are now linked individually for easy copy-and-paste into Blackboard

September Blackboard Sessions

Blackboard Basics with Susan Gallanis

Wednesday September 11, Noon – 1:00 pm CST in R006 or via Zoom

This session is for faculty. Learn how to log in and find your courses, add a folder, upload a document, create an Assignment (“drop box”), set up the grade center, open course for students, copy a course.

This session will be a F2F class, as well as a webinar streamed from the Mequon campus. You can join the webinar from your own computer using Zoom.

Registration

Blackboard Tests and Rubrics with Justin Frisque

Wednesday September 18, Noon – 1:00 pm CST in R006 or via Zoom

This session is for faculty. Learn how to create online tests using a variety of test questions. Learn how to create electronic rubrics you can attach to drop boxes and other assignments. This session will be a F2F class, as well as a webinar streamed from the Mequon campus. You can join the webinar from your own computer using Zoom.

Registration

CEL T Staff

Elizabeth Evans, CELT Director

elizabeth.evans@cuw.edu, 262-243-4283

Justin Frisque, Assistant Director Education Technology

justin.frisque@cuw.edu, 262-243-4270

Susan Gallanis, Assistant Director—CEL T

susan.gallanis@cuw.edu, 262-243-2007

Kate Robertson, Instructional Development Specialist

catherine.robertson@cuw.edu, 262-243-2082

“Sufficient Grace in God's Perfect Power”

“Jesus said to me, ‘My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.’

Therefore, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me.” (2 Corinthians 12:9 ESV)